

Course outcome/ Programme Outcome

As per the academic instruction of Dibrugarh University from 2017 onwards the department continuing two programmes namely, Semester and CBCS course. In semester system sociology covers 14 courses in major and 6 in non-major courses. In CBCS course covers 20 courses in core and 5 courses in generic elective course. The courses mainly touch all aspect of society and help students to understand the social phenomena scientifically. Some of the course outcome of the Semester and CBCS system has given below:

SL.NO	COURSE NAME	OUTCOME
1.	Principle of Sociology	it aims at the understanding of sociology with its background of emergence and students will also be acquainted with the basic concepts of sociology along with its position in social sciences
2.	Sociology of Social change	aims at providing a theoretical knowledge on social change and development
3.	Theoretical Perspectives in Sociology	to give an analytical and cognitive approach which will provide students to acquaint with classical, modern and Indian sociological thinkers
4.	Science, Technology and society	Sociological understanding of science and its respectable sibling i.e technology.
5.	Globalization and Society	course enable to students to understand the characteristics of and the issues relating to globalization
6.	Urban sociology	It provides an exposure to key theoretical perspectives for understanding urban life in historical and contemporary contexts.
7.	Economic sociology	provides an understanding of the social and cultural bases of economic activity